DESCRIPTION

LIEZL LADINES CANCERAN, 32 year old married to a 32 year old unemployed and they are blessed with 2 children ages 12 and 5 year old from Bangar, La Union. She is the eldest child among her 3-siblings. Her 52 year old father is a driver while her 50 year old mother is a housewife. She finished her secondary education at Doña Francisca Lacsamana De Ortega Memorial High School year 1998. Then she took up a degree in Computer Science but did not manage to pursue due to financial difficulty. Previously, she worked as sales lady for 6 months. Currently, she taking care of her children and doing household chores while waiting for her application in Singapore to be selected.

1) As a member of a typical Filipino family, she was raised and taught how to do general household chores. This applicant is efficient and flexible in performing household work like maintaining the cleanliness of the house, washing and ironing clothes, marketing, cooking, dish washing and gardening. One of the best traits of a Filipino is our close family ties. Though no formal experience in taking care of children, we were molded by our parents to look after our younger relatives welfare and safety. As a mother, she confident in taking care of infant to young children and capable in performing child care duties such as feeding, bathing, preparing their school things, playing with the children, giving assistance for their homework and studies and bringing and fetching them to school. She is open with the opportunity in looking after elderly person and prepared to be trained in the giving them direct nursing care and supervising their other needs. She has knowledge in preparing and cooking Filipino dishes and enthusiastic to learn more especially in cooking other foreign cuisine. Aside from those duties, she is also willing to do car washing and care for pets when necessary. This applicant is eager to work in Singapore as she wanted to help her family in their financial needs and to have a secured savings for their future.

2) Though no formal experience as maid in Philippines she considers herself experience as she does all the housework such as cleaning the house, laundry, cooking and others in their household. She also experienced caring her nieces and nephews, her children and cooks for the family. Upon confirmation she will undergo intensive In House training for two weeks in an accredited center in Manila then OWWA seminar and POEA processing of employment documents prior to deployment to Singapore. IMPORTANT NOTES FOR EMPLOYERS WHEN USING THE SERVICES OF AN EA

- Do consider asking an FDW who is able to communicate in a language you require, and interview her (in person/phone/videoconference) to ensure that she can communicate adequately.
- Do consider requesting for an FDW who has a proven ability to perform the chores you require, for example, performing household chores (especially if she is required to hang laundry from a high-rise unit), cooking and caring for young children or the elderly.
- Do work together with the EA to ensure that a suitable FDW is matched to you according to your needs and requirements.
- You may wish to pay special attention to your prospective FDW's employment history and feedback from the FDW's previous employer(s) before employing her.
